

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

NEW-ROCHELLE.

The Republican Town Convention was held in Lambden's Hall on Monday night. William Johnson was chairman and Herman Kallenberg secretary. The convention was harmonious, and the ticket nominated is regarded as one of the strongest the Republicans have put forth in several years. The candidates are Supervisor, H. D. Phelps; Town Clerk, Henry Scherf; Receiver of Taxes, Charles Hobart Morgan; Justice of the Peace, J. T. R. McMurtry; Assessor, William F. Martin; C. A. Cole and Peter Berger, Auditors; George Watson, La Salle A. Maynard and George E. Ladd, Constables; Richard Compton, George B. Wolff, Sheriff; John Green and William Ellis. Mr. Phelps was the only candidate named for Supervisor, and he was nominated unanimously. The principal contest was for Clerk. Mr. Scherf defeated Joseph Frank by a vote of 25 to 22.

The Trustees had a special meeting on Monday night to consider the street-lighting contract, which expires next month. The contract is now held by the Lamson Electric Light Company, and it amounts to about $600 a year. The new company has taken over the work for a year at $600 a year and incandescent for $25 a year for arc and incandescent lights. The East Electric Light Company offers arc lights for this year and incandescent for $25 a year. The Welshbach company makes only incandescent lights, and these have been referred to the Committee on Street Lighting.

The Town Board on Monday night heard the protests of a number of citizens who live outside the village and are opposed to the consolidation as contained in the city charter. The Board appointed Justice of the Peace, John Lacey to go to Albany and negotiate. The Board has also decided to submit a proposition to the voters at the next election to pension school teachers who have taught for twenty-five years more.

SING SING.

The annual meeting of the Sing Sing Yacht Club was held on Monday evening, and the following officers were elected: Commodore, Ralph Brandt; vice-commodore, Colonel Francis Larkin, Jr.; rear-commodore, Gilbert M. Todd; secretary, Robert T. Dennis; treasurer, Joseph Thompson, and treasurer, William M. Carpenter. On Monday evening the Ossining Yacht Club held its annual election, and the following officers were chosen: Commodore, George S. Jenkins; vice-commodore, James H. Moran; rear-commodore, Robert T. Dennis; secretary, George S. Jenkins; treasurer, Edward P. Smith; and treasurer, Irving S. Haff. All organizations are reported to be in excellent financial condition.

Secretary T. J. Owens of the village Republican Committee yesterday morning made a complaint before Justice Milton C. Palmer against W. Graham, charging him with illegal voting at the village Republican convention on Monday of last week. It appears that Justice Graham lives outside the incorporation limits, and voted the tenth ballot at the primary in question. The complaint was made in pursuance of a resolution adopted by the village Republicans, and the Police Justice, W. W. Ryder, chairman. After being arraigned yesterday afternoon before the Police Justice, Graham pleaded not guilty, and was held in $500 bail.

Rev. Dr. E. A. Lloyd of Christ Church, Yonkers, preached at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in this village last evening. The Rev. Stephen V. Reneker, of Grace Church, New York City, will preach in Trinity Church this evening.

A bill has been issued for the annual election of the village Fire Department, to be held in Waller-avenue engine-house on the first Tuesday in April, when a chief engineer and two assistants will be elected.

YONKERS.

Warren H. Lowrance, brother of Health Commissioner George H. Lowrance, died yesterday at home of his mother, Mrs. Caroline E. Lowrance, in Park Hill. The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at his home.

The third lecture in the Lenten course at Park Hill Country Club was delivered last night by Garrett P. Hobart. His topic was "Facts. The Captain of Salvation."

The final game in the bowling tournament at Hollywood Inn were rolled on Sunday night between teams of men and women, F. J. winning this second division prize in the tournament.

Tracy wins a bowling ball for the highest average, and a similar prize goes to A. Alexander for the greatest number of strikes.

The Lodge of Odd Fellows gave an entertainment last night in the hall in North Broadway. There was an illustrated lecture on Odd Fellowship.

The Board of Police Commissioners will meet at headquarters this afternoon at 4 o'clock, and at 8 o'clock on Friday evening the Fire Commissioners will meet the new members.

Allen F. Edwards, who has been connected with the Yonkers Public Railroad as superintendent, and later as manager, has resigned to take the management of a railroad near Richmond, Va.

TAKRTYTOWN.

Both parties held their village conventions on Monday evening, the Republicans in the Millard Building, and the Democrats in the Town Clerk's office. The ticket nominated by the Republicans is as follows: Village president, Charles Goss, village trustee (First District), William J. Goss, (Second District) G. Linson Wood, and Third District) George D. Minard, collector, Thomas Rawlinson, auditor, Charles McCutcheon.

The Republicans endorsed the Republican nominees with two exceptions, Cornelius B. Johnson for a collector and John C. Johnson for a collector.

All the Republican nominees except Mr. Wood are endorsed by the Democrats.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

A meeting of the Clearing House Association will be held to-morrow to consider an amendment to the constitution, proposed by the Clearing House Committee, making certain changes for collection of country checks.

Philip W. Reinhard was sworn in as paymaster at the Custom House yesterday. Mr. Reinhard's salary will be $2,500 a year, the same amount as was paid to Acting Paymaster Seleck, whose position was abolished last week.

The seventy-seventh stated meeting of the Society of the Alumni of the City Hospital will be held at 8:30 o'clock to-night at the Royalton, No. 47 West Forty-third st.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother, Isaac Reina, who had declined to accept the presidency of the Croton Aqueduct extension in Westchester County, failed to get the necessary forty-five votes required for a financial measure by the charter. It was made a special order for next week.

The Senate having confirmed before adjournment the appointment of Captain James R. Reina to be postmaster at White Plains, Capt. Reina assumed the duties of that office yesterday. Captain Reina succeeds his brother,